

SALEH AFZOOK

25 | Juny | Deltebre

I can sincerely affirm, to the best of my knowledge and believe, based on inspections, observations and testing of the HMRS-android -App and upon reports submitted by others, that this android App is substantially complete and operable.

Saleh Afzoon was co-working with the department manager, who was supervising all the process. Delinternet was testing all the details and improvements on some mobile phones of workers before list the activity like done.
